Artist Statement / While I have your attention, I can either put you in a daze or a meditation, confuse, anger, or excite you. This moment in time we share is an offering. I offer you both how I see the world and what I wish to add, one step at a time. Dance is my medium but it is never my destination. The goal is to help you leave thinking elsewhere. So wherever you encounter my work, should you decide to go, enjoy the show. Should you take this offering with you, keep it safe.
